

O.A.S.I.S. Informational Seminar

October 13th 2017

9:00am to 12:00 Noon

1st Special Forces Group Regimental
Mess (RMF) Bldg. 9180

Who Should Attend

Although primarily intended for active duty or reserve personnel separating within the next 24 months, seminars are open to all active duty or Veteran members of the Special Operations community, as well and reservists and spouses.

What Will Be Covered

The seminar will cover what you need to know about VA benefits, including actions required of you prior to your separation. Other topics will include educational benefits, filing your VA claim, the appeals process, and more.

What Should I Bring

Nothing is required for the seminar. If you want a personnel appointment then O.A.S.I.S. personnel will be available to make more specific suggestions if you bring your military medical records and any previous VA correspondence.

Personal Appointments

O.A.S.I.S. personnel will be available for forty-five minute personal interviews from 13:00 to 16:00. O.A.S.I.S. personnel will also offer access to a VA-accredited organization that can assist you in filing your VA claim or submitting a request for re-evaluation or appeal.

The O.A.S.I.S. Group will host a veteran seminar for 1st SF Group, 2nd Ranger Battalion, 4/160th SOAR, and the 22nd STS. O.A.S.I.S. Group is a 501(c)(3) dedicated to providing United States Special Operations personnel, their family members and former Special Operations Veterans information about benefits available from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. O.A.S.I.S. personnel include former Veteran Administration claims specialists, SOF Veterans and volunteer medical professionals with over 250 years of experience. www.oasisgrp.org
